SANTA FE FINED SEVEN THOUSAND

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, by its counsel, pleaded guilty to rebating today and was assessed a fine of $7000 by Judge Betha in the United States district court. The government, represented by District Attorney Edwin Sims, proved that a bonus paid by the railroad to the Garden City Sugar and Land company of Garden City, Kansas, was in effect a rebate. The railroad company, through its industrial department, offered the Garden City concern a bonus of $50,000 for locating on its line. This bonus was to be paid as freight was shipped, and a year ago the sugar and land company had paid $22,000 in freight charges and received $11,000 of its bonus. It was by this arrangement that the scheme came under the ban of the interstate commerce and Elkins laws. The decision does not, it is stated, affect the paying of legitimate bonuses to assist new industries.

SAYS EVELYN'S STORY IS FALSE

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Hattie Forsythe, the intimate friend of Evelyn Thaw, and in whose home Evelyn and Harry sought refuge when driven from various hotels, said that Evelyn's story before the jury regarding her mistreatment by Stanford White had been created entirely by Thaw's attorneys and carefully rehearsed by Evelyn until she was letter perfect in the part of a wronged wife. It was represented to her that it was necessary to tell this story to save Harry's life. "Evelyn is a dear little thing, a little fickle as far as men are concerned, but she is an awful story teller," said Miss Forsythe. "There is not a word of truth in her tale."

He was traced to Omaha, after having been put in jail at Green River, Wyoming, and Laramie for vagrancy. He went from Omaha to Chicago, but the detectives were unable to get him there until he went to the postoffice for a decoy letter, which had been advertised as unclaimed. He was arrested at once, but denied his identity as long as possible. He will start for San Francisco in the morning in charge of young Burns and a Chicago detective.

BREAK IN PRICES ON THE MARKET

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The tone of the stock market was nervous and irregular today. A broadened demand was sufficient to dominate the upward tendency, however, in spite of some set backs. DOCTOR'S LIFE SAVED BY BURRO

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 10.—Dr. Eugene P. Woillard, a physician of this city, was saved from instant death by the stubbornness of his burro, which, with firmly braced feet and neck withstood the shock caused by Woillard falling thirty feet into a shaft, to be brought up with a jerk by the rope which was fastened around his waist, the other end having been tied to the neck of the donkey. The strange adventure took place far out in the desert. Nearly dying of thirst Woillard, who was engaged in prospecting, came across an abandoned well more than 200 feet in depth. While peering over the edge in search of water he lost his balance and fell in.

On account of the burro straying away at night Woillard had taken the precaution to tie the rope about his body. As he fell he thought the burro would follow him, but the faithful beast stood firm and the physician was able to climb to the surface by holding to the rope and digging his feet into the sides of the shaft. His back and arms were badly wrenched by the fall.
